JERSEY CITY LIKE TOWN IN FRENCH WAR ZONE

FLAMES STARTED WITH EXPLOSION SALT PETRE PLANT

EVERY PIECE FIRE APPARATUS IN JERSEY CITY CALLED TO QUENCH BLAZE

500 FAMILIES ALREADY RENDER-ED HOMELESS BY WATER-FRONT FIRE

(By United Press)
Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 14.—Amid the thunder of exploding dynamite and scores of minor detonations several blocks near the Jersey City waterfront were destroyed this afternoon by a fire which was far from under control at 1 p. m.

Fought from land and river by hundreds of firemen and streams from New York fireboats, the flames devoured the salt petre plant of Bastelle & Renwick, the large warehouse of the American Sugar Refining company and a dozen tenement dwellings and spread rapidly, whipped by a high wind.

Starting with an explosion in the salt petre plant at 9 a. m. the flames gained such headway in four hours that every available piece of apparatus in Jersey City was at work with help from surrounding towns without appreciably checking being given to the fire.

The scene resembled a town in the war zone of France. Constant explosions were punctuated now and then with dynamite blasts as buildings were razed in the path of the flames.

Rescue workers were on the ground and rushed victims to the hospital. Priests were on hand and moved about in the fire lines. More than 2,000 were taken from their homes and cared for in police stations and public buildings.

Ambulances changed busily through the streets. Two men were taken from the Bastelle & Renwick plant before it was completely destroyed. River traffic was halted. Tugs and ferry boats could not get into their slips.

The fire finally caught in the Germantown section of Jersey City.

Scenes of heroism were enacted as Jersey City firemen endeavored to keep their slow yielding lines drawn as tightly as possible around the burning area. The advancing walls of flame were approaching the huge warehouse of Colgate and Company where 6,000 tons of soap were stored.

Cheers went up from the crowd as Capt. George Bush went up a fire escape, through a tenement window and brought back a small boy.

The heat from the fire on the river was intense. Lehigh Valley and Jersey City railroad tugs joined the fire boats.

Many children were being rescued from homes in the vicinity. Five hundred families have been made homeless by the flames up to 1 p. m.

Mrs. Mary Conallan had seven children in the house. The body of one child who had died Wednesday lay in a casket in the parlor. The child was to have been buried this afternoon. Her sister was preparing to have a baby. Firemen removed Mrs. Conallan's sister to a hospital and helped the others to safety, but the little white casket was left to the flames.

Many who had been rendered homeless by fire or water were looking for places to spend the night.

Flames were eating their way through the nine-story sugar refining warehouse and shortly before 1 o'clock a 90-foot wall collapsed.

Tenement houses across the street were burning briskly.

Firemen Injured in Explosion

A terrific explosion, followed by five others in rapid succession, blew up the ruins of a fire-gutted factory high in the air and tangled timbers and debris came crashing to the ground. Bricks, machinery and timbers flew through the air, while clouds of gaseous acid spread through the devastated area. Several firemen were injured and even some spectators sustained minor injuries.

The explosion came from acid stored in the factory cellar and firemen in the vicinity were taken entirely unawares.

The state pardon board, considering applications for clemency made at its October session, refused to free him, or to commute his sentence.

This was the only announcement as the board took its noon recess. The session was continued this afternoon.

Weisman is serving a term for conducting a house of ill fame in Minneapolis.

SHEARER SUIT TOUCHES ON ARMAMENT

SECRETARY OF NAVY WILBUR
FILES ANSWER IN LITIGATION

SAYS BRITISH EMPIRE IS PER-MITTED LARGER CAPITAL
SHIP TONNAGE

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 14.—The British Empire is permitted a larger capital ship tonnage under the Washington arms treaty than is the United States, Secretary of the Navy Wilbur indicated in his answer to the Shearer suit, filed in district supreme court here today.

Wilbur, through United States District Attorney West, moved dismissal of the action brought by William Shearer of New York to restrain the navy chief from sinking the U. S. S. Washington next week.

"The terms of the treaty allow the United States 525,000 capital ship displacement tonnage and the British Empire over 580,000, the latter to be reduced to 558,950 and not 525,000, the figure for the United States," Wilbur said.

Wilbur said the scrapping program of this government has not yet been completed and that a number of the American naval vessels are now in the process of scrapping, the North Dakota in addition to the Washington is to be used later as a target.

Wilbur contended that the Washington has been only 70.2 per cent completed and that work upon it was stopped as soon as it was set aside for scrapping under the treaty.

He said the vessel so far has cost this government $15,240,144.05, which may be reduced later by sale of material or may be increased by payment of compensation to the contractor for cancellation of the contract.

The former battle cruisers Saratoga and Lexington have been ordered converted into aircraft carriers, the secretary added.

Wilbur asked dismissal of the Shearer suit on the ground that Shearer had no right to bring the suit, that the sinking of the Washington was undertaken in conformance with an act of Congress authorizing the scrapping of certain vessels—including the Washington, and that the entire matter was within his discretion as authorized by law.

"MASTER FORGER," ONCE IN STILLWATER, SEIZED IN FLORIDA

St. Paul, Nov. 14.—"Lieut." William Hagan Harkins, master forger, whose operations in Minnesota landed him in Stillwater prison, is under arrest at Miami, Fla.

Telegraphic dispatches say he was arrested there on a forgery charge preferred by the W. J. Burns Detective agency.

During his operations Harkins is alleged to have obtained $300,000 from banks and to have staged a number of jail breaks.

He was arrested in Duluth about a year ago and sentenced to Stillwater. Robert E. Reinbolt and two women, one of whom claimed to be Harkins' wife, were arrested with him.

NINTH DAY OF POST-ELECTION STOCK TRADING

BOOM CONTINUES WITH ANOTHER
2,000,000 SHARE DAY IN PROSPECT

YESTERDAY'S TURNOVER WAS
2,185,413 SHARES—FIFTH DAY
TO PASS 2,000,000 MARK

(By United Press)
New York, Nov. 14.—The New York Stock Exchange entered the ninth day of the great post-election stock trading boom today with another 2,000,000-share day in prospect.

Yesterday's turnover was 2,185,413 shares. It was the fifth day of the bull market to pass two million shares and the eighth to pass one million. Stocks soared over all previous records since November 21, 1916. Fifty-nine issues established new highs with a total of 555 stocks dealt in, a record for all time.

Total shares dealt in passed 15,000,000 and it was estimated that paper appreciated in value to less than $3,000,000,000. This is purely a paper increase, of course, but to Wall street it represents the foundation of a "great period of post-election prosperity."

The appreciation in open values of stocks listed on the Stock Exchange was estimated at $2,500,000,000. With the increase in value of curb stock and deals "across the counter" added, a total of more than $3,000,000,000 was reached, it was said.

Despite heavy profit-taking the market continued bullish with industrial news of a constructive nature adding to the enthusiasm of trading.

Bankers who interested themselves in stocks during the dull summer season were listed as among the big winners. Professional traders as a whole were not active in the market, which was described as "too high, wide and frolicsome" for them.

The professionals, anticipating the "top" of the market, were said to have lost heavily by selling short in many issues. The analysts feel that a break must come soon but they admit no man can tell when it will be.

CLEMENCEAU AND LLOYD GEORGE DENY 'FIGHT' TALE

LATTER'S BOOK "OVER THIRTY YEARS" IS CREATING SEN-SATION

(By United Press)
London, Nov. 14.—Both Georges Clemenceau and David Lloyd George today declared there was no truth in Wickham Stead's account of how the two ex-premiers nearly fought a duel in the days of Versailles.

The former editor of the Times was not disturbed by their denials.

"Naturally I could not have written what I did if I were not sure of my facts," Stead said.

His book, "Over Thirty Years," is creating a sensation. Besides the story of the alleged row between the premiers, in which Stead said the Welshman had "The Tiger" by the collar and Woodrow Wilson had to intervene, the author made his book intriguing by the casual way in which he tells of giving advice to cabinet officers and kings.

JULIUS WIESE ASLEEP FOR OVER 5 YEARS

ST. PAUL MAN IS SUFFERER FROM ENSEPHALITIS

STARTED TO "FEEL DROWSY"
BACK IN THE YEAR
1919

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Nov. 14.—For most of the last five years Julius Wiese has been asleep, according to Dr. T. J. McElroy, superintendent of Ancker Hospital.

He is at Ancker Hospital now in a critical condition. The attention of medical experts throughout the Northwest has been called to his unusual case.

Wiese is a victim of chronic encephalitis—sleeping sickness—and it is believed his case holds the record for longevity. He began to "feel drowsy" back in 1919 just after the war. He was then 44 years old.

Early in 1920 he was beset by fits of sleepiness and many times fell asleep standing up. His condition alarmed his employer and he was taken to a hospital. At first he was quite easily awakened when a nurse would rub him briskly. As time went on his periods of wakefulness became shorter and it was necessary to feed him through a tube.

Recently his case has become critical and his wife was called to his bedside today.

MAN WHO BUILT ELECTRIC CHAIR WAS EXECUTED

(By United Press)
Columbus, O., Nov. 14.—Since the electric chair was introduced into the Ohio state penitentiary here, it has claimed 101 lives. It is also a notable fact that the man who built the electric chair died in it. His name was Charles Justice and he had two weaknesses. One was a mania for experimenting with electricity and the other was for stealing. For the latter he served three terms in the big Spring Street prison and while "doing his third stretch" he designed and built the chair.

This fine piece of work won him a pardon from Governor Harmon. But his liberty was short lived. Once outside the walls of the prison he began to steal and during one of his theft sprees he killed a man to cover up the theft.

In July of 1911 he was convicted of first degree murder and on October 27 that same year he was led up to the platform on which rests the death chair and strapped into the seat which he had designed for others.

Hanging was abandoned as the form of capital punishment at Ohio in 1897.

COMMISSION APPOINTED BY PRES. COOLIDGE

WILL MAKE STUDY AND ADVISE HIM ON AGRICULTURAL POLICIES

RECOMMENDATIONS TO EXTEND FAR BEYOND TEMPORARY RELIEF

(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 14.—The commission appointed by the president to advise him on agricultural policies will make a study going far beyond the problem of temporary relief.

President Coolidge has instructed the commission to be prepared to report to him measures which may become fundamental factors in a governmental policy toward agriculture. The president disclosed in his speech to the land grant college meeting last night that he is convinced an era of tremendous change is approaching in American farming. He believes that "within a very few years" the United States will become one of the greatest buyers of farm products instead of one of the greatest sellers.

With this fundamental revolution imminent in the farming world, Mr. Coolidge believes the government should be prepared with an adequate policy toward agriculture. In a general way measures should be taken to assure the American farmer the most scientific means of production and distribution.

"If we cause our farm population to fall to the level of a mere agricultural peasantry they will carry down with them the general social and economic level," he pointed out.

The president did not indicate in his speech last night what the scope of the new farm policy might be. He will deliver another address November 17 before the agricultural commission which is expected to outline his plan more definitely.

LONE COWMAN TO DRIVE VAST REINDEER HERD

WILL TRAVEL THOUSANDS OF
MILES IN THE FAR NORTH

CARRIES HIS OWN FOOD SUPPLY

Cantwell, Alaska, Nov. 14.—Driving a herd of from 7,000 to 10,000 reindeer a distance of more than a thousand miles, and dividing the trip between the summer with swollen streams and myriads of mosquitoes is the task undertaken by George Ashenfelter, representing the department of education in Alaska and himself owner of a big herd of reindeer. Ashenfelter has been delegated the work of transferring the herds of deer belonging to the Eskimos of the Arctic region and the department of education jointly.

Too Many There

The cause of the transfer, according to William T. Loop, superintendent for the department in Alaska, and having direction of the department's energies is making the Eskimo independent, is overcrowding the range in the Arctic. According to Loop, even while the department was pondering a solution of the problem which had come through the increase of the Loman and other large herds, information was received from an agent of the department to the effect that the old system of making the native prey to any imposition the white man desired had finally been transferred from the earlier pages of American western history to the land of the midnight sun and half-year winter of cold and darkness. Tales of slaughter of Eskimo deer, arrests and inability to obtain a conviction in the northern cattle country, were contained in communications to Loop.

Having already transferred one herd of some 1,500 deer to Broad Pass, of which Cantwell is the gateway to the deer-grazing plateau, it was decided to remove all deer belonging to the department of education and its Eskimo wards to the new grazing grounds along the Alaska railroad, rather than wage war for equal opportunity on the northern range.

Eskimos Will Move, Too

With the transfer will come a large number of Eskimos, apprentices and herders, with their wives and children. These aborigines of the Arctic own deer through donations from the department of education, a certain number of animals being given in charge of an apprentice herder, and upon matriculation with the degree of "bachelor of reindeer herders" he receives another allotment of which he enjoys the increase, and builds up his own herd.

The migration of deer and Eskimos southward is the first step looking to bringing these hitherto strange and primitive people to within closer touch with modern civilization. It may mean eventual absorption of the Eskimo into Caucasian civilization and change his entire mode of existence, according to Mrs. Ashenfelter, who is a full-blooded Eskimo, mission (Continued on page 4)

KANSAS CITY USES RIVER FOR WHEAT

(By United Press)
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 14.—This inland city for the first time in history recently established connection by way of the Mississippi river with the Gulf of Mexico.

Five hundred thousand bushels of Kansas wheat shipped through Kansas City floated down St. Louis, Mo., out to sea and to European markets with a saving over rail transportation of 2 cents a bushel, or $10,000. The barge line which moved the wheat soon will extend its service direct to Kansas City via the Missouri river.

The wheat was loaded in St. Louis from freight cars and ten days later it was in storage elevators at New Orleans.

The second shipment totals 700,000 bushels and is soon to get under way, bringing the total bushels of wheat transported down the river to 1,200,000 bushels, and representing a saving in transportation of $24,000 to the shipper.

Northwest has been called to his unusual case.Wiese is a victim of chronic encephalitis—sleeping sickness—and it is believed his case holds the record for longevity. He began to "feel drowsy" back in 1919 just after the war. He was then 44 years old.Early in 1920 he was beset by fits of sleepiness and many times fell asleep standing up. His condition alarmed his employer and he was taken to a hospital. At first he was quite easily awakened when a nurse would rub him briskly. As time went on his periods of wakefulness became shorter and it was necessary to feed him through a tube.Recently his case has become critical and his wife was called to his bedside today.MAN WHO BUILT ELECTRIC CHAIR
WAS EXECUTED(By United Press)
Columbus, O., Nov. 14.—Since the electric chair was introduced into the Ohio state penitentiary here, it has claimed 101 lives. It is also a notable fact that the man who built the electric chair died in it. His name was Charles Justice and he had two weaknesses. One was a mania for experimenting with electricity and the other was for stealing. For the latter he served three terms in the big Spring Street prison and while "doing his third stretch" he designed and built the chair.This fine piece of work won him a pardon from Governor Harmon. But his liberty was short lived. Once outside the walls of the prison he began to steal and during one of his theft sprees he killed a man to cover up the theft.In July of 1911 he was convicted of first degree murder and on October 27 that same year he was led up to the platform on which rests the death chair and strapped into the seat which he had designed for others.Hanging was abandoned as the form of capital punishment at Ohio in 1897.MRS. HANNAH BRIDGES
DIED AT AGE OF 112(By United Press)
Goldsboro, N. C., Nov. 14.—Mrs.
Hannah Bridges died at her home near here today at the age of 112 years.She is survived by six generations of descendants, including five children, one of whom is 90 years old.COMMISSION APPOINTED BY
PRES. COOLIDGEWILL MAKE STUDY AND ADVISE
HIM ON AGRICULTURAL
POLICIESRECOMMENDATIONS TO EXTEND
FAR BEYOND TEMPORARY
RELIEF(By United Press)
Washington, Nov. 14.—The commission appointed by the president to advise him on agricultural policies will make a study going far beyond the problem of temporary relief.President Coolidge has instructed the commission to be prepared to report to him measures which may become fundamental factors in a governmental policy toward agriculture.
The president disclosed in his speech to the land grant college meeting last night that he is convinced an era of tremendous change is approaching in American farming. He believes that "within a very few years" the United States will become one of the greatest buyers of farm products instead of one of the greatest sellers.With this fundamental revolution imminent in the farming world, Mr.
Coolidge believes the government should be prepared with an adequate policy toward agriculture. In a general way measures should be taken to assure the American farmer the most scientific means of production and distribution."If we cause our farm population to fall to the level of a mere agricultural peasantry they will carry down with them the general social and economic level," he pointed out.The president did not indicate in his speech last night what the scope of the new farm policy might be. He will deliver another address November 17 before the agricultural commission which is expected to outline his plan more definitely.PUBLISHER TERMS spiracy to murder which he must tween them to kill John Looney, former publisher of a rival paper.The warrants were issued on affidavits of A. W. Dillburg and George Holsapple, convicted of murder, who charged a plot including in the quartette the Rock Island mayor existed to rid the town of the publisher, Looney, by killing his son.$100,000 Suit Filed

000 was filed in circuit court here against Nathan F. Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, slayers of Bobby Franks. It was filed in behalf of Charles Ream, a taxicab driver, of Chicago, who claims the pair mutilated him. Notification of the suit was

DIED SUDDENLY(By United Press)
Appleton, Wis., Nov. 14.—Because of the sudden death of Dr. Samuel E.
Plantz, 70, president of Lawrence College of this city, who was found dead at a hotel in Sturgeon Bay this morning, all homecoming activities of the college, which were to have been opened today, have been officially called off. The matter of calling off the homecoming football game between Lawrence College and Hamline

TO DRIVE VAST REINDEER HERDWILL TRAVEL THOUSANDS OF
MILES IN THE FAR
NORTHCARRIES HIS OWN FOOD SUPPLY
AND SLEEPING BAG ON BACKCantwell, Alaska, Nov. 14.—Driving a herd of from 7,000 to 10,000 reindeer a distance of more than a thousand miles, and dividing the trip between the summer with swollen streams and myriads of mosquitoes is the task undertaken by George Ash-enfelter, representing the department of education in Alaska and himself owner of a big herd of reindeer. Ash-enfelter has been delegated the work of transferring the herds of deer belonging to the Eskimos of the Arctic region and the department of education jointly.

Too Many There

The cause of the transfer, according to William T. Loop, superintendent for the department in Alaska, and having direction of the department's energies is making the Eskimo independent, is overcrowding the range in the Arctic. According to Lopo, even while the department was pondering a solution of the problem which had come through the increase of the Loman and other large herds, information was received from an agent of the department to the effect that the old system of making the native prey to any imposition the white man desired had finally been transferred from the earlier pages of American western history to the land of the midnight sun and half-year winter of cold and darkness. Tales of slaughter of Eskimo deer, arrests and inability to obtain a conviction in the northern cattle country, were contained in communications to Loop.Having already transferred one herd of some 1,500 deer to Broad Pass, of which Cantwell is the gateway to the deer-grazing plateau, it was decided to remove all deer belonging to the department of education and its Eskimo wards to the new grazing grounds along the Alaska railroad, rather than wage war for equal opportunity on the northern range.

Eskimos Will Move, Too

With the transfer will come a large number of Eskimos, apprentices and herders, with their wives and children. These aborigines of the Arctic own deer through donations from the department of education, a certain number of animals being given in charge of an apprentice herder, and upon matriculation with the degree of "bachelor of reindeer herders" he receives another allotment of which he enjoys the increase, and builds up his own herd.The migration of deer and Eskimos southward is the first step looking to bringing these hitherto strange and primitive people to within closer touch with modern civilization. It may mean eventual absorption of the Eskimo into Caucasian civilization and change his entire mode of existence, according to Mrs. Ashenfelter, who is a full-blooded Eskimo, mission

RIVER FOR WHEAT(By United Press)
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 14.—This inland city for the first time in history recently established connection by way of the Mississippi river with the Gulf of Mexico.Five hundred thousand bushels of Kansas wheat shipped through Kansas City floated from St. Louis, Mo., out to sea and to European markets with a saving over rail transportation of 2 cents a bushel, or $10,000.The barge line which moved the wheat soon will extend its service direct to Kansas City via the Missouri river.The wheat was loaded in St. Louis from freight cars and ten days later it was in storage elevators at New Orleans.The second shipment totals 700-000 bushels and is soon to get under way, bringing the total bushels of wheat transported down the river to 1,200,000 bushels, and representing a saving in transportation of $24,000 to the shipper.THE SIX COUNTS THAT

MRS. W. G. HARDING
DEVELOPS ALARMING
HEART SYMPTOMS

Marion, O., Nov. 14.—Mrs. Warren G. Harding had another restless, painful night during which she developed alarming heart symptoms, Dr. Carl E. Sawyer said today in his official bulletin.

Shortly after midnight Mrs. Harding developed what is known as an attack of "air hunger," her physician said. The attack was severe and prolonged, but the nurse succeeded in reviving her by throwing open the windows.

"WHY I TRADE IN BRAINERD"

"WHY I Trade in Brainerd" is the subject of the essay contest inaugurated by the Brainerd Dispatch. East Hennepin Avenue Merchants Association of Minneapolis based their essay contest on "Why I Should Trade in East Hennepin."

The Dispatch realizes that many people can write charming essays and may win on the title "Why I SHOULD Trade in Brainerd." But what the Dispatch wants is letters on "WHY I TRADE IN BRAINERD." Every writer will be an exponent of the argument he preaches.

Each writer in the essay contest will tell plainly what advantages he found in trading in Brainerd, why he prefers to do so, why it is better than sending one's money out of town, etc. Home trade builds up all home industries.

A flourishing home town helps every man, woman and child living in that town. The home paper cannot flourish, it cannot pay its men wages if everybody takes a "city" paper. The home bank can show no imposing list of deposits if everybody mails their savings to a "city" bank.

The home store, no matter what its line, would accumulate cobwebs and have to shut up shop if everybody ordered their stuff from out of town. There are lots of good arguments to be advanced for trading at home in Brainerd and the letters which this essay contest is expected to produce, will reveal the most potent logic based on fact to trade in Brainerd.

"RED" GRANGE TOMORROW

SOME colleges have worked a year preparing a suitable defense whenever one "Red" Grange plays in the Illini lineup. This red-headed personage streaks through opposing players like a long-tailed comet marking up the Big Dipper.

The other day Walter Camp attended the Chicago-Illinois game to see "Red" in action and after talking it over with Alonzo Stagg of Chicago, both agreed that Grange is "some football player."

"Red" is in football what Babe Ruth is in baseball. Both show their immense drawing power at the gate. Both have that individuality which sticks out like a sore thumb and cannot be disguised. Illini without "Red", the Yankees without Babe Ruth, well they're both like the Independent party without "Bob" La Follette. For real steam, energy, brilliant leadership you've got to garner a big bouquet and hand a piece to each of them.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO AMERICA

IN an address delivered in England, Sir Auckland Geddes, former British ambassador to America, told how American thought was an influence in the Kingdom and the Dominions.

One gains from his address the idea that world leadership in thoughtful, constructive work has passed from England to the United States. Newspapers quote him as saying: "The British dominions that look out on the Pacific feel that in Washington there is an instinctive understanding of their difficulties. When they come to London they have to explain laboriously in Downing street."

WHEN a man is a hero in his wife's eyes, then he's reached the pinnacle of glory. And when he's got the game to show, a big buck deer and a big black bear, well, we believe E. H. Perry's cup of happiness is complete and just running over. E. H. has preached so much about hunting and fishing, his store has given so many prizes in fishing competitions, that it was natural and necessary too, that the head of the house get out to the woods and bring back the laurels of the chase. And if you visited E. H.'s store, no arguments were necessary. The deer and the bear reposed on the trailer, mute evidence of the skill of E. H.'s deadly eye and his deadlier rifle which barked like a French 75 whenever he pulled the trigger.

THE job of poet is one which sometimes carries glory but generally little in the way of substantial recompense for labor serving the muse. The University of Michigan has provided a fellowship in letters which has been accepted by Robert Frost, one of America's foremost poets. The fellowship exists for life, gives him full freedom to write and entails no teaching duties.

A FEW men of character will be accepted as recruits in the Navy, provided they can furnish references. The day when the Navy was looked upon as a reformatory for wayward youths has passed, and service on our ships is now regarded as a broad education in various technical lines and in the study of the world and its peoples.

FRANK DAY got so "het up" in the election that he threatened to turn republican if La Follette was elected. This would be some flop for Frank, who is a staunch Democrat. Now that the election is over, he says he will have time to return to his fight on cigarets and capital punishment.

AN exchange states that many a fool man may appreciate the nonsense of a pretty woman more than the sense of a homely one.

CONGRESS will be asked by the treasury in the forthcoming short session either to repeal or to make clear provisions of the tax laws relating to publication of income tax returns.

LOS ANGELES has another bid for fame and an opportunity to capitalize its climate. A United States senator there lived to be 102 years old before he departed this life.

WAISTLINE too big. Play golf in summer and reduce it. Go deer hunting in the fall or tramp and boat miles after ducks.

CROSS-WORD puzzles, like golf and baseball, are said to be breaking up many homes.

As the temperature drops, the hopes of the deer hunters rise. They want a light snow in order to track deer.

PHANTO, THE MYSTIC

Check to Person's Mind

Phanto, the mystic and oriental mind reader, who comes to the New Park theatre tomorrow and Sunday, has the reputation of being able to read anything from a Chinese laundry check to a person's mind, with no one to call upon except his Hindu saints.

With the characteristic calm of the orient, Phanto will answer all questions put to him by Brainerd people, with an accuracy that is said to be uncanny. He states that foolish question deserve and will receive foolish answers, but patrons with earnest queries will be well satisfied with the serious attention given them.

Patrons of the New Park are promised a very pleasant surprise and something quite out of the ordinary in Phanto, who is said to be much more than a mere mindreader.

Discussed

The Lincoln-Washington parent-teachers association met at the Lincoln building on Wednesday evening. The following program was presented:

Solo—Margaret Ludwig.
Piano duet—Miss Jackson and Miss Benson.
Report on child welfare conference—Miss Lowey.

Report on state Parent-Teachers convention—Mrs. S. Newman.

Reading, "The Unexpected Guest"—Miss Edna Anderson.

Mrs. Newman was a delegate from the Lincoln-Washington parent-teachers association to the convention at Duluth, and gave a very complete report. She stated that she wanted the local association to get its money's worth from the conference, and the members are glad to state that she brought it back with interest.

Miss Gladys Prinzing attended the child welfare conference as a delegate from the local association, and her written report was read by Miss Lowey.

Miss Anderson, a member of the faculty of the Lowell school, received much applause for her rendition of "The Unexpected Guest." She proved herself a reader of no mean ability.

At the business session that followed the program, the association discussed preparations for the school carnival, November 22nd. Plans for this big event are well under way, and the carnival bids fair to exceed the one given last year, which was a big success. The association uses the funds received from the carnival for various school enterprises that it sponsors. The public is urged to be present and assist this worthy cause.

Thrilling Bull Fight in "The Bando-

One of the many unusual scenes obtained by Tom Terriss in making the "Bandobero," scheduled for the Lyceum Theatre Sunday, is a bull fight, made in Spain. The bullfighters' union there wanted so much money that it looked at first as if there wouldn't be any bullfighting in the picture. But Canero, the greatest bullfighter in Spain, saved the situation by volunteering his own services and those of his $10,000 horse.

An Open Letter to the People of Brainerd

To the Public:

Each year brings to the screen one or two great motion pictures that because of their magnificence, their wonderful human appeal, their spectacular splendor, stand out as gigantic and notable successes.

Frank Lloyd has produced just such a success in "The Sea Hawk," which will be shown at the New Park on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Because of Rafael Sabatini's unique and powerful story—

Because of its marvelous love theme—

Because of its irresistible appeal to men and women, young and old, alike—

Because of its massiveness in production treatment—

Because of the performance of Milton Sills and an exceptional supporting cast—

The New Park theatre feels that you will agree that this picture is the ultimate in romance and amazing adventure, and we are proud to present it to our patrons.

educated, and now a resident of Anchorage, together with her family of five children. She believes that the Eskimo will, like herself, readily merge into the more modern and cultured civilization and hold his own through industry and thrift. Her bent is agriculture and artistic bead work. And her children forsake play to cultivate vegetables and flowers, many of the former of which they have never beheld growing in their natural environment.

A Big Task

The task of driving the deer from Point Barrow to Broad Pass entails a trip which no one but the hardest musher of the Arctic may hope to accomplish. It means a roundup on foot in the great barrens of the Arctic slope, throwing the herd together and keeping it intact while moving by periodical stages along the region where the white reindeer moss abounds. This work will be accomplished in summer and the herd worked as far south as possible before the season of snow, ice and Arctic blizzards break upon them. Crossing the Yukon, near Holy Cross, the herd will go into winter quarters on the Kuskokwim, a natural feeding ground and breeding area for the wild caribou.

The deer fawning season begins in May, and here the most difficult part of the drive will begin. The herd must get on the move to cross the streams running north from Mt. McKinley before the ice goes out. This is generally in early June. As the deer are in a semi-wild state, something after the nature of range cattle they are not amenable to the advances of man. In the mad rush forward when driven by the herders many calves of tender years fall victims to fatigue and weakness attendant upon trying to keep pace with their mothers. To meet the emergency, a number of sled deer and shepherd dogs, trained for sled work as well as herding, are pressed into service. The calves are gathered up as they fall behind and are hauled along over the snow and re-delivered to the herd when a halt is called.

Driver Has No Shelter

Unlike the old-time cowboy, there is neither chuck wagon or shelter for the herder during the drive. He carries his food supply and sleeping bag on his back and camps like the reindeer, in the great open, with the temperature sometimes around 60 degrees below zero. He travels afoot and covers many miles in addition to his straight course of more than a thousand.

In driving the first herds from the Arctic to Broad Pass, there were many casualties among the calves. The country is rough, perils many. When the herd reached Cantwell the sleighs carried many calves with split hoofs, lacerations of legs and body. Here the strangest of surgical services ever performed were imposed by Dr. Laudermilch, surgeon for the Alaska railroad, then building north. Dr. Laudermilch found himself facing several sleighloads of casualties with a request to perform the same services he had performed on the battlefields of France. When his charges left the clearing hospital they carried sundry and varied dressings, including splints for fractured legs and great plasters of adhesive tape over cotton and gauze, smelling highly of antiseptics.

Ordinarily a semi-wild reindeer will disown her offspring if handled by the hands of man. This has caused additional burdens for the herder, who finally equipped himself with raw reindeer hide gloves. In the case of the first animals the mother accepted her offspring back even though he smelled of the operating room.—St. Paul Daily News.

"Perfect Flapper" Reverses Things
Ever hear of a fashionable debutante party where the waiters were served by the guests?
This is the unusual situation that takes place in "The Perfect Flapper," the first National picture starring Colleen Moore, which is now showing at the New Park Theatre.
Tommie Lou Pember, member of a fashionable younger set, but herself a quiet, modest girl, finds that less than fifty of her four hundred invitations were accepted. The boisterous guests discover that they are outnumbered by the waiters; so the waiters are seated at the tables and waited upon by the guests who are dressed in gorgeous costumes.

Viola Dana in "In Search of a Thrill"

Wanted—an Apache! A real honest-to-goodness desperado of the Paris underworld, because Viola Dana, the Metro star whose latest production, "In Search of a Thrill," coming to the New Park on Saturday and Sunday, says that no substitute can be found to fill her demand for a dancing partner whose powers of endurance are equal to her own determination and perseverance.

His Best Role

The dual character of Sir Oliver Tressilian and Sakr-el-Bahr, in Frank Lloyd's "The Sea Hawk," showing at the New Park on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is regarded by Milton Sills as the best all-around acting part he has ever had on the screen. This is a first National picture.

Roy Stewart Scores Hit in Strong Western Play

Here's a Western feature combining hard riding, a thrilling runaway, beautiful pictorial shots of the Southwestern range country and drama that has punchy value which all lovers of outdoor pictures will like.

"Pure Grit," the Universal attraction starring Roy Stewart, which opened last night at the Lyceum Theatre, was favored with a reception which proves that Western pictures are always popular.

The story is woven around the romance of the ranger and the school teacher, having been adapted from William McLeod Raine's widely read novel, "The Texas Ranger." It is showing again tonight.

Vandeville at the New Park Saturday and Sunday—Regular Prices

Phanto, the world's greatest mind reader, will be presented in conjunction with Viola Dana in "In Search of a Thrill." All for regular prices. Phanto answers all questions.

Write your questions at home (in any language), seal or sew them up—solder them in tin cans or braze them in gas pipe, bring them to the theatre and Phanto will answer them without seeing them. He calls your name aloud, tells you of your every hope, fear and ambition better than you know yourself. Skeptics are invited to put the most severe test before him. Years of travel and study in the far eastern lands crown Phanto to the greatest living authority and marvelous exponent of his weird and mysterious calling.

SCENE FROM "40 HORSE HAWKINS" STARRING HOOT GIBSON
A UNIVERSAL-GIBSON PRODUCTION

Hoot Gibson's latest production, "40 Horse Hawkins," which is coming to the Lyceum Theatre Saturday only, is said to contain more laughs than any in which Hoot has appeared for a long time. It tells the troubles of a man who is the entire staff of a village opera house and hotel; peeks back into the days of real melodrama, and then takes the hero to New York, where he searches for the maiden he loves.

AN ARTIST OF GREAT ABILITY

MISS META CRAWFORD
Pianist at the Lyceum Theatre

Miss Meta Crawford, the pianist at the Lyceum theatre, whose picture appears above, is an artist of exceptional ability, and because she is unassuming, and does not boast of her accomplishments, the general public knows little of her, except that the music at the Lyceum is always of the best, and that it adds materially to the picture program.

Miss Crawford is a graduate pupil of one of Theodore Leschetitzky's proteges, who has often boasted that she was one of his most talented students.

Following the completion of her musical education, she chose the stage for her career, and spent three seasons on the Keith vaudeville circuit, where she was featured as one of the circuit's "headliners."

Later, giving up the stage, but being unable to entirely sever connections with the theatre, Miss Crawford has devoted herself to her present line of work, spending a year as pianist at the Peerless theatre, Chicago, a similar length of time in the Allen theatre, Moose Jaw, Canada, four years with the Grand theatre, two years in Grand Forks, N. D., at the Strand and Grand theatres, and

SHOOT 3 BUCK DEER AND BEAR

Drogseth Shot His Buck 15 Minutes After Taking Up His Stand

E. H. Perry, Fremond Turcotte and A. P. Drogseth, returned Thursday evening from a deer hunt, each with a fine buck. For good measure, Mr. Perry shot a black bear weighing about 175 pounds. A Minneapolis man who was at the same hunting camp, shot a big brown bear, the only one of its kind heard of in that locality.

The Brainerd party left on Sunday for the William McCall resort, situated twenty miles north of Bovey on the Misaba range. Mr. McCall, the proprietor formerly operated Lone Pine Camp, on South Long lake, in Crow Wing county, and has many friends in the vicinity of Brainerd who will be glad to learn that he is doing well in his location, on Balsam lake.

Deer are reported as being very plentiful in that territory. Mr. Drogseth shot his buck within fifteen minutes after taking his stand on the first morning of the hunt, and Mr. Perry got his within an hour of that time.

The hunters report that accommodation a year in the Cecil theatre, Mason City, Iowa.

Miss Crawford was featured in radio programs, while in Iowa, broadcasting from the Register-Tribune station, at Des Moines.

Many patrons of the Lyceum theatre have complimented the management upon the musical portion of the programs, since Miss Crawford has presided at the organ, but few have realized the amount of study and experience that has been necessary to perfect this ability.

Was skeptical of Kellogg's Bran until it gave him back his health

Naturally Mr. Carter—whose letter follows—was skeptical. He had tried practically everything for the relief of constipation. All had failed. But Kellogg's Bran brought him permanent relief, just as it has done for thousands of others. Read his letter:

Gentlemen:
I am 43 years old, and have been for years a great sufferer from constipation. I had to resign a clerical position because of rushes of blood to my head, some of which caused me to fall to the ground. I took an outdoor laboring job and tried for the first time, skeptically I admit, your Krumbled Bran. The result has been wonderful. I began to be normal after I had been on the Bran about three days. No more enemas, no more Old Dr. So-and-So's Pills, Epsom salts by the ton, etc., ad infinitum! You have the most wonderful product for constipation I have ever seen or tried. Yours very gratefully,

L. T. Carter, 234 Nineteenth St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, does not irritate the intestines like drugs and pills. It acts exactly as nature acts. Eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to relieve permanently the most chronic case of constipation, or your grocer will return your money.

You will like the exclusive, nut-like flavor of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Eat it with milk or cream and in the recipes on every package. Sold by all grocers. Made in Battle Creek.

ions and service at the McCall camp are of the very best. Mr. McCall, his two sons, Archie and Harold, with Fred Bejault, act as guides for their guests, and no one has been disappointed. The hunter is provided with a whistle, with which to signal when he gets his deer, is placed on a stand, with instructions to remain there under all circumstances, and a drive is made which brings a deer past the stand. A fine buck is the result unless the hunter is seized with "buck fever."

The hunting laws in Itasca county forbid the shooting of does, and the Brainerd men state that as a result of this protection the deer are quite tame, the does often leading the bucks within range of the hunters rifles.

The trophies of the hunt were on display Friday morning in front of the Perry Hardware store, where they commanded much attention and brought forth many words of admiration. The Brainerd men recommend the McCall lodge very highly to both small and large game hunters.

EDUCATION WEEK STARTS NOV. 17

Will be Observed in the Schools of the City Starting With "Constitution Day"

CITIZENSHIP DUTIES

Schools to Maintain Educational System Perpetuating Best in Life And Ideals of Republic

American Education Week is the one time in all the year when the entire nation is called upon to dedicate itself anew to the great task of universal education for democracy, to see and know the schools, to consider in a public way the big problems of education, and to join in appreciation of its achievements.

The schools themselves have a truly remarkable opportunity to teach every boy and girl his responsibility as a citizen to help maintain an educational system which will perpetuate the best in the life and ideals of the Republic.

The following is the basic program which has been prepared by the American Legion, the National Education Association, and the United States Bureau of Education. It is recommended by the Commissioner of Education, James M. McConnell, and by the Minnesota Education Association as a basis for observance in public schools and institutions. The general slogans for the week are:

A sick body makes a sick mind. Here is the program for the week:

RIVERSIDE P. T. A.

Meets Tonight With a Good Program Presented, Followed by a Lunch

The Riverside Parent-Teachers Association will hold its regular meeting on Friday evening, November 14th, at 7:30 o'clock sharp. A good program will be presented, followed by a lunch. The O. G. club will hold a candy sale.

There is lots of fun in store for all who attend, visitors are always welcome, and parents are especially urged to be present.

Kappa Delphian Chapter

The Kappa Delphian Chapter meets at 2:30 P. M. tomorrow at 607 Holly street. The subject, Religion and Art of Egypt, covers a final review of Ancient Egypt.

"The life of the ancient Egyptians was in a great measure controlled by their religious beliefs." Is this true today? "As a Man Thinketh, So is He" taken from early scripture, applied to every day living by James Allen and still more recently made the basis of Psychiatry by leading psychologists of this country, should be given more thought by all of us.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to friends, relatives and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and beautiful floral offerings extended during the sickness and death of our son and brother.

MR. and MRS. WM. H. BUMP, itp

1st Baptist Aid

ASK FAIRVIEW TWP. DIVISION

John M. Bye, R. J. Tinkelpaugh, S. A. Riches Appear Before Cass County Commissioners

LOCATED ON E. GULL LAKE

Commissioners Vote Unanimously For the Proposed Division

John M. Bye, R. J. Tinkelpaugh, S. A. Riches and George W. French, with Attorney McGinley, of Minneapolis, appeared before the county commissioners of Cass county on Wednesday, where they presented a petition to have Fairview township, situated on Gull lake, divided, so that the portion on the east side of the lake might be formed in a new township, called "East Gull Lake."

The board of county commissioners held a special meeting at Walker on Wednesday to consider this petition, and the members voted unanimously in favor of the division of the township, much to the satisfaction of the committee from Brainerd.

The division line between the two townships will begin at the north-east corner of the old town of Fairview, and will follow the east shore of Gull lake to a point about midway along the south side of the lake, where the line goes due south to the southern border of the former township.

A number of Brainerd people, with lake homes on the east shores of Gull lake are affected by this division, and were instrumental in it. They hope now to make many improvements in East Gull Lake township, in the form of better roads to various points on the lake, more cottages and an extension of electric light service to more lake homes.

The work of organizing the new township will be started in the near future, as quickly as the attorney can map out the method of procedure.

The Good I Do

New beauty, new youth at your call

By Edna Wallace Hopper

To every girl I offer the beauty helps that France gave me. The helps that made me famous.

To every woman I offer my aids to perennial youth. The aids which keep me, after 40 years of stage life, looking like a girl of 19.

I am doing enormous good. I know that from the thousands of letters which reach my office daily. But I want more to share that good.

My Youth Cream

My Youth Cream is a remarkable creation, combining many factors. It contains products of both lemon and strawberry. Also all the best helps science gave me to foster and protect the skin.

It comes in two types—cold cream and vanishing. I use it as a night cream, also daytimes as a powder base. Never is my skin without it. My velvet complexion shows what that cream can do.

The cost is 50c per jar.

My Facial Youth is a liquid cleanser which I also owe to France. Great beauty experts the world over now advise this formula, but their price is too high for most women.

It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. The skin cannot absorb it. So it cleans to the depths, then departs. All the dirt, grease, grime and dead skin come out with it. My Facial Youth will bring you new conceptions of what a clean skin means. The cost is 75c.

White Youth Clay

A new-type clay, white, refined and dainty. Vastly different from the crude and muddy clays so many have employed. The final result of 20 years of scientific study.

EDUCATION WEEK STARTS NOV. 17

Will be Observed in the Schools of the City Starting With "Constitution Day"

CITIZENSHIP DUTIES

Schools to Maintain Educational System Perpetuating Best in Life And Ideals of Republic

American Education Week is the one time in all the year when the entire nation is called upon to dedicate itself anew to the great task of universal education for democracy, to see and know the schools, to consider in a public way the big problems of education, and to join in appreciation of its achievements.

The schools themselves have a truly remarkable opportunity to teach every boy and girl his responsibility as a citizen to help maintain an educational system which will perpetuate the best in the life and ideals of the Republic.

The following is the basic program which has been prepared by the American Legion, the National Education Association, and the United States Bureau of Education. It is recommended by the Commissioner of Education, James M. McConnell, and by the Minnesota Education Association as a basis for observance in public schools and institutions. The general slogans for the week are:

Children today, citizens tomorrow. A man of knowledge increaseth might.

A sick body makes a sick mind. Here is the program for the week:

Monday, November 17 Constitution Day

The Constitution is the bulwark of democracy and happiness

1. Life, liberty, justice, security, and opportunity.
2. How our Constitution guarantees these rights.
3. Revolutionists, communists, and extreme pacifists are a menace to these guarantees.
4. One Constitution, one Union, one flag, one history.

Slogans—Ballots not bullets. Master the English language. Visit the schools today.

Tuesday, November 18 Patriotism Day

3. Take an active interest in governmental affairs.
4. Stamp out revolutionary radicalism.
5. To vote is the primary duty of the patriot.

Slogans—America first. The red flag means danger. Visit the schools today.

6. Music influence upon the Nation.

Slogans—Better-trained and better-paid teachers, more adequate buildings. Schools are the Nation's greatest asset. Visit the schools today.

Thursday, November 20 Illiteracy Day

Informed intelligence is the foundation of representative government

1. Illiteracy is a menace to our Nation.
2. An American's duty toward the uneducated.
3. Provide school opportunity for every illiterate.
4. Illiteracy creates misunderstanding.
5. An illiterate who obtains only second-hand information is a tool of the radical.

Slogans—No illiteracy by 1930. Education is a Godly nation's greatest need. The dictionary is the beacon light to understanding. Visit the schools today.

Friday, November 21 Physical Education Day

Playgrounds and athletic fields means a strong healthy nation

"I wish to inform you what WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT has done for me. For more than fifty years I suffered from constipation. I hope no other individual ever suffered from that dreaded disease as I did. It came upon me at a time when I was working in the east, and continued to grow worse until I happened to see your advertisement in a leading magazine, and grasping at a straw, sent to you for one dozen cans. After using it for 24 days, I was completely relieved. I was an old man when I was 31 years of age; now I do not feel over twenty one, though I am past 76. I thank you for this life saving food."

BIG CONTESTS IN EAST AND WEST ON CARD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 14.—Nearing the end of football's greatest and most interesting season, the big teams will jump into the most important battles of the year tomorrow on gridirons in every section of the country.

The schedule is filled with highly important engagements, but for the first time the color of intersectional battles will be missing. Neighborhood battles, however, will furnish competition sufficient to make up for the lack of north-south and east-west rivalry.

For real fighting and an exhibition of hard, desperate football, national eyes will have to turn west to South Bend, where the good Notre Dame eleven will engage Nebraska.

This is more than a football game. It is the opportunity for one of the finest teams that ever ran a football field to avenge two defeats in the last two years at the hands of Nebraska, the only two losses that Notre Dame has been forced to take in that time.

Some bad feeling developed in the game at Lincoln last year, the Notre Dame players charging that Nebraska touched upon some religious subjects in trying to get the goats of the Notre Dame players.

Notre Dame has been through a terrific schedule, and it is one of the new wonders of the world how Rockne can hope to keep his team from going stale through such a test. Nebraska rested up last week in preparation for the game and should be in fine condition.

Perhaps the Princeton-Yale game is the leading encounter of the eastern section, but there are other contests, without the tradition of the "Big Three" games, that promise football just as interesting.

Princeton's games with Harvard and Yale are always interesting to the public because, as a rule, Princeton is making an under-dog fight and those who have no reverences for "Big Three" football would like to see Princeton beat both Yale and Harvard.

Yale is favored to win tomorrow, but Princeton teams have the faculty of pulling the unexpected. The Tiger never quits.

Getting ready for the last "Big Three" games next week, Harvard plays Brown at Cambridge. Perhaps the game was scheduled with the idea of providing easy competition and making it possible for the Harvard coaches to take several varsity players to Princeton to look over Yale. Brown is no cinch, however, and Harvard may have quite a battle.

RATER CLASS

By HENRY L. FARRELL

New York, Nov. 14.—Having escaped the tin can from the immigration department, Luis Angel Firpo, South American heavyweight champion, can not return home decorated with a wreath of razzberries and a sack full of dough.

Decisively defeated in a 12-round bout in Newark last night by Charley Weinert, a veteran of 13 years in the ring, Firpo showed that he is through as a star bout fighter.

There are a lot of hams that Firpo can fight now and might accept the demotion to the preliminary and semi-final class, but Firpo wants more money than he can get as a second-class fighter.

Ever since Firpo was seen in this country, the smart birds of cauliflower alley said "he can be left-handed to death."

Firpo was left-handed to death by Weinert and he succeeded in getting a margin in only three of the 12 rounds.

Firpo, who had knocked the great Dempsey out of the ring and who had missed the heavyweight championship by the margin of an ant's beard, left the ring bleeding from the nose and mouth, squinting from eyes pounded almost shut and puffing like the wild bull of the pampas that he had been called.

Weinert on the other hand didn't have a mark. He was tired, very tired, but the spirit of victory kept him from showing it too much. The worst Weinert got was a tap on the nose that drew a little blood.

The complete collapse of Firpo was shown when he failed to land a punch that might have stopped Weinert after the tenth round. The exertion of pumping a hard left hand into Firpo's face round after round wore out the Newark fighter and only his defensive skill kept him out of the way of the failing right hand.

MINNESOTA FRESHMAN'S NO. 14 IS THE BIGGEST FEET IN FOOTBALL WORLD

Gary, who plays a slashing game on the University of Minnesota's freshman eleven, wields his football cleets on a pair of No. 14 shoes. He covers a lot of ground with those big shoes and is expected to develop into a star.

Estimates Capital Has 5,000 Bootleggers

Washington, Nov. 14.—Five thousand bootleggers are now operating in the national capital, Assistant United States District Attorney David Hart estimated today.

Hart has had charge of prohibition enforcement cases here for three years. His estimate would make one out of every 90 Washingtonians a bootlegger.

Of the 5,000 bootleggers now working, all but 20 have been before the courts at one time or another, Hart said. Over 10,000 cases of bootlegging have been prosecuted since the Volstead act went into effect.

swings that Firpo lashed at him.

Weinert fought much like he did 12 years ago when he looked like the coming heavyweight champion. He always was a boxer and a hitter, but he wouldn't train. Weinert's victory proved several things. It showed that Harry Wills is not the fighter that he claims to be. Wills, with all his foul fighting, didn't do as much to Firpo as Weinert did.

It indicated also that there might have been something funny about the two-round knockout that Firpo scored over Weinert two years ago when the South American was being built up for a heavyweight championship bout.

Minneapolis, Nov. 14.—Minnesota would like to borrow a nice little portable section of the Chinese wall for tomorrow.

After the first look at "Red" Grange, sucker gridiron constellation of the age, Gopher linesmen felt themselves over and began to wonder. They wondered if the famous Grange is all that they say he is.

Tomorrow will tell. Coach Bill Spaulding hasn't had much hope that Minnesota would beat the Illinois, but privileged observers of secret practice believe they have solved Bill's idea regarding the big game. It would be a fine piece of strategy and a real feather in his cap if Spaulding could pocket the great Grange. Just that is just what he hopes to do.

Minnesota is going to try to keep Grange from starting. If they can do that, they will have accomplished much, the Gophers feel.

Coach Bob Zupke arrived early today with his Illinois and went directly to the Nicollet Hotel. This afternoon and tomorrow morning Zupke will put his men through limbering up and practice at the new Memorial stadium field.

The Stadium will be dedicated to-morrow at game time.

It will be "Dad's Day" at the field and more than 600 "dads" of past, present and future Gopher football players have promised to make a showing.

OUT OF PLACE AT FOOTBALL GAMES, SAYS CORNELL
PAPER

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Girls are all right in their place, but that place is not in the cheering section.

That is the tone of an editorial in the Cornell Sun demanding that coeds be prohibited from sitting on the cheering section at football games.

Under the heading of "Soprano Cheering" the Sun says, in part:

"Perhaps these spirited girls answered a craving for masculine company, for the excitement of close proximity to men's voices raised in praise and entreaty, or perhaps they actually wanted to cheer a Cornell team, but cheering is not usually presumed to be hermaphroditic.

"As a matter of fact, mixed duets of 'Cornell, I Yell, Yell, Cornell,' do not particularly enhance the effect of cheering. Feminine squeals of glee and screams of fear are charming in their place, but that place is not section E G, the cheering section of the Cornell crescent.

"They, the women, are, to be sure, a substantial part of the student body, and should be considered so until adequate facilities permit their segregation, but they can, at least, remain in the background when the students make an attempt to improve Cornell cheering.

"Our cheering has been deplorable, and those in charge should be congratulated for their endeavor to build up a definite body of so-called rooters. If we are finally to boast of our cheering prowess women must be prohibited from participation. Undergraduates should weep that, like the modern smoking car, there is evidently to be no odor of masculine aloofness about the cheering section."

Babe Ruth and Walter Johnson "Choosing Up" Sides Just as They Did It in Their Boyhood Days

The home run king and the pitching star of the Washington Senators chose sides for a game at Los Angeles by tossing the bat—a custom of the days when they played on sandlot diamonds.

Babe's team won by a score of 11 to 1. The Bambino pitched the entire game, allowing Johnson's team only half a dozen scattered hits. To round out a perfect day, he smacked out two homers.

Patching Concrete

When repairing damaged or cracked concrete work, keep the place to be patched thoroughly wet for several hours before working on it, and roughen it with a hammer or chisel if it is smooth. Also be sure that you use the same proportions of sand, gravel and cement as in the original mixture, so that the new work will expand and contract the same as the old concrete. Otherwise the patch will crack.—Popular Science Monthly.

DIVORCED SPOUSE CONTENDS BUTLER CONCEALED RICHES

BROTHER OF SUPREME COURT JUSTICE DECLARED TO BE

HIGHER ALIMONY IS ASKED BY WIFE DIVORCED YEAR AND A HALF AGO

St. Paul, Nov. 14.—The Reno divorce obtained by Cooley Butler, multi-millionaire brother of Pierce Butler, St. Paul, United States supreme court justice, is charged to be invalid in a suit filed in Los Angeles.

The action was started by Mrs. Rozelle O. Butler, the wife divorced in the Reno action a year and a half ago.

She asks a share of her husband's fortune of $15,000,000, attorney's fees of $100,000 court costs of $20,000, and alimony of $3,000 a month.

The "other woman" in the case is named as Le Rue Wallace Jenkins, with whom, Mrs. Butler charges, her husband became so infatuated that he deserted her Jan. 6, 1922.

Butler filed a suit for divorce in Reno, Nev., April 7, 1923, and in this, the wife charges, made false and slanderous statements, and that through false representations and intimidations, forced her to sign a settlement. He represented at that time, she says, that his wealth did not exceed $250,000. The truth is, she declares, that he was worth $10,000,000 when they went to California from Duluth a few years ago, and that he has added $5,000,000 to his fortune since then.

She also declares that she was not properly served in the Reno divorce case, and that her husband was not a resident of Nevada at the time the divorce was granted.

Appointment of a conservator to care for Butler's property pending hearing of the divorce case is asked in order to prevent him from disposing of his property to make it appear that he cannot afford to pay the alimony, attorney's fees and court costs demanded.

In the Reno case, Butler charged his wife with being too friendly with A. W. Sorenson, prominent Los Angeles attorney.—St. Paul Daily News

SQUIRE EDGEATE—The Old Boy Wants to Get Out of the Hole

BIG CONTESTS IN EAST AND WEST ON CARD

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Nov. 14.—Nearing the end of football's greatest and most interesting season, the big teams will jump into the most important battles of the year tomorrow on gridirons in every section of the country.

The schedule is filled with highly important engagements, but for the first time the color of intersectional battles will be missing. Neighborhood battles, however, will furnish competition sufficient to make up for the lack of north-south and east-west rivalry.

For real fighting and an exhibition of hard, desperate football, national eyes will have to turn west to South Bend, where the good Notre Dame eleven will engage Nebraska.

This is more than a football game. It is the opportunity for one of the finest teams that ever ran a football field to avenge two defeats in the last two years at the hands of Nebraska, the only two losses that Notre Dame has been forced to take in that time.

Some bad feeling developed in the game at Lincoln last year, the Notre Dame players charging that Nebraska touched upon some religious subjects in trying to get the goats of the Notre Dame players.

Notre Dame has been through a terrific schedule, and it is one of the new wonders of the world how Rockne can hope to keep his team from going stale through such a test. Nebraska rested up last week in preparation for the game and should be in fine condition.

Perhaps the Princeton-Yale game is the leading encounter of the eastern section, but there are other contests, without the tradition of the "Big Three" games, that promise football just as interesting.

Princeton's games with Harvard and Yale are always interesting to the public because, as a rule, Princeton is making an under-dog fight and those who have no reverence for "Big Three" football would like to see Princeton beat both Yale and Harvard.

Yale is favored to win tomorrow, but Princeton teams have the faculty of pulling the unexpected. The Tiger never quits.

Getting ready for the last "Big Three" games next week, Harvard plays Brown at Cambridge. Perhaps the game was scheduled with the idea of providing easy competition and making it possible for the Harvard coaches to take several varsity players to Princeton to look over Yale. Brown is no cinch, however, and Harvard may have quite a battle.

AWAY: STOP PAINS

Pain and congestion is gone. Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from chest colds, sore throat, backache, lumbago follows a gentle rubbing with St. Jacobs Oil.

Rub this soothing, penetrating oil right on your chest and like magic relief comes. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless liniment which quickly breaks chest colds, soothes the inflammation of sore throat and breaks up the congestion that causes pain. It never disappoints and does not burn the skin.

Get a 35 cent bottle of St. Jacobs Oil at any drug store. It has been recommended for 65 years.—Adv.
